

New offices, improved services from TSG

We are delighted with our new offices situated just a few minutes walk from Liverpool Street station in the City of London. Our new training facilities are the best we have ever had and include an outside balcony with fabulous views over the City skyline! We continue to offer our high quality public certificated testing training schedule both here and across a range of venues in the UK. Together with our seminars, bespoke training and Learntesting Virtual Learning, TSG offers a flexible range of classroom, online and blended training options. Please note our new unique offer to ALL classroom students – a free 1-year subscription to Learntesting including access to a private library of 50 testing and testing-related ebooks.

TSG continues to offer specialised Testing Consultancy from some of the leading consultants in the field and also works with clients to provide co-sourced testing services. For further information on how TSG can help you to improve your testing to improve productivity and increase competitiveness, contact us at 020 7469 1500.
